Chaplain's Message

Pope Benedict's Apostolic Exhortation, Sacramentum Caritatis (Sacrament of Love) reminds us that the Eucharist is "the sum and summary of our faith." This "gift that Jesus makes of Himself" reveals "the loving plan that guides all of salvation history." On the feast of the Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi), the Church celebrates this communion of love between Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

The Exhortation encourages us to prepare for mass and the reception of this most sacred sacrament. According to Pope Benedict, active participation at mass does not simply refer to "external" acts such as singing louder or saying all the responses. "Active participation" means a greater awareness of the mystery being celebrated. We are not strangers or observers at mass. We participate "in the sacred action, conscious of what we are doing, actively and devoutly." The presentation of the gifts to the altar is not simply an interlude between the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist. It is a time that we not only bring forward the bread and wine but we offer ourselves to God to be transformed. At mass, we make an "offering of ourselves" to God.

The gift of the Eucharist should inspire us to spend time in preparation for mass. We are mindful that we should reflect on the Liturgy of the Word before mass. The scriptures for the coming week are noted in the bulletin. The Pope encourages us to take seriously our preparation for mass with quiet reflection, fasting, and the sacrament of reconciliation. Our reception of such a profound gift as the Eucharist deserves our respect and gratitude.

It is easy to rush in and out of church and is often a challenge to maintain our focus even during mass. Bishop Sheen celebrated a Holy hour before the Blessed Sacrament each day of his priesthood. I often wonder how he found the time to do that and meet all of his schedule demands. Yet, he said that it was the most important hour of his day. The time for prayer and reflection is there if we take it. Our challenge for this month is to set aside time to prepare for mass and to actively participate not just in song but in sincerely presenting our lives to God.

Through the Eucharist, we are transformed, leading us to closer union with Christ.

Deacon Greg Rapisarda

Grand Knight's Message

I trust the Mothers among us had an enjoyable day on Mothers day spending time with the family and being pampered. After all there, is no more demanding or rewarding job than Mother.

The Maryland State Council has announced their 2007-2008 tour schedules. There is a bus trip to Niagara Falls in September, a Caribbean cruise in January, and another bus trip to Savannah in March. If you have not yet made your vacation plans for next year perhaps one of these trips would be of interest.

One of our Tootsie roll benefactors, the Arc, is asking for assistance with one of their programs. The program involves the renovation of homes supported by the Arc. No they are not recruiting carpenters and painters, they are looking for donations. What they are in need of are household items such as towels, linens, kitchenware, and other household essentials. If we wish to aid them in this contact Elaine Orbino at 410-879-6785 or EOrbino@arcncr.org.

Do not forget the Council night at the ball game. See Dave Custer for tickets to the Ironbirds game on August 16 game time 7:05. Tickets are $22.50 and include the game, souvenirs and food in the left field picnic area prior to the game.

Mark your calendars for July 14. That is the date for the Council family picnic. Come out and enjoy the camaraderie and family fun Ed and Tom have in store. Bring the family. Give either Ed or Tom an idea about how many guests you will be bringing so they can plan accordingly.

As the fraternal year draws to a close I would like to thank the Council for allowing me to represent them this past year. It has been an honor and a privilege for me to be the figurehead for Bel Air Council. We missed a few goals but that's the way it goes you can't win 'em all. My term in office would not have gone well without the support of the Council Officers, thank you gentlemen for your patience and support this past year it has been a pleasure to work with each of you. I would like to also thank all the Brother Knights who came forward and took up the challenge presented by our busy activity calendar. Special thanks go to Frank DiAngelo for his efforts in the area of membership, Terry Lijewski for keeping alive our Family of the Month program, and Tom Rappold for taking over the reins of the Bingo program, thank you gentlemen for taking on these most important programs and carrying on when your predecessors retired.

By the time many of the members read this the outcome of the election will have been determined, however at the time this was written the results were not a forgone conclusion, I look forward to leading Bel Air Council in the next fraternal year if that is the will of the membership. Mary Queen of the Knights.....

Remember always our sick and deceased members. An extra prayer or two for our gallant service personnel would go a long way toward their safe return to their loved ones.

Together we can achieve great things.

District Deputy's Message

The 109th Annual Maryland State Convention, held on May 19 through 20, is now history. The convention was well attended and all in attendance seemed to enjoy themselves.

All District 16 councils were represented in the Grand Knight Olympics. However, our performance was not worthy of any awards. Although, we had a lot of fun and really enjoyed the camaraderie and fellowship.

'The Surge with Service Award' was presented to each of the District 16 councils. This award is given to each council that has completed four activities in each of the five major service areas during the fraternal year.

The Bel Air Ladies also received an award for their programs. Their programs were rated as being among the best and were presented with a 3rd place award. Congratulation Ladies, Keep up the good work.

Thanks to Bernie Classon, Bel Air's Lecture program was rated as being the best in the State. For this, Bernie was presented with the 1st place award.

Bishop Becker is to be congratulated for receiving the 1st Place Award for having the Best Hospitality Room of the Convention. The Hospitality Room with the theme "A Knight at the Circus" was the talk of the convention. The food and activities were equally enjoyed by both the adults and the children. Pop Corn, Peanuts, Cotton candy, hot dogs, corn dogs, Italian ice, sodas as well as beverages for adults were just a few of the delicacies served. A full breakfast consisting of scrambled eggs, sausage, bacon, hot cakes and cereal as well as a variety of juices, coffee and tea was available on Saturday morning. This was truly a team effort and obviously a lot of thought and hard work which resulted in many congratulatory accolades for Bishop Becker and District 16 as well.

I wish to congratulate all the officers elected to lead the councils for the 07/08 fraternal year. May the Good Lord bless each of you and be by your side throughout the year. With a lot of hard work and dedication, we can work together and make this the best year ever. It is important that a report of all the officers be provided to the Executive Secretary, Romeo Gauthier ASAP. Also, request each Grand Knight please provide me with your installation date.

With God's Blessing We continue to live our Faith.
Vivat Jesus,

Ross Liberati, DD District #16

Insurance

Buying life insurance is something that's easy to put off until tomorrow. And if your life is as busy as mine, tomorrow can easily become next week, next month, or even next year. I'd like to make a personal plea that you not make that mistake. Before the summer is over, make an appointment to visit with me, your professional Knights of Columbus agent. I'll work with you to put a plan in place that will help your family when that help is most needed.

We all know someone whose health, instantly and seemingly out-of-the-blue, changes. You may think this can't happen to you. Think again. And keep in mind that no one will ring a bell warning you that your health is about to change. Medical technology has turned many diseases previously termed "death sentences" into very treatable conditions. What medical advances haven't changed, however, is that being diagnosed with one of these diseases will dramatically affect your ability to purchase life insurance coverage. Don't wait until it's too late. Call me today.

Your Knights of Columbus insurance program is second to none. Knights of Columbus life insurance represents a safety net for Catholic families that's unsurpassed, and we're proud of that. We're also concerned. Why? Because there are more than 1 million Knights of Columbus members who have no life insurance with us. I suspect that, for many of those 1 million members, tomorrow has become next week, next month or next year. Don't be one of them. Don't wait for the bell to ring. It isn't going to.

It's been my pleasure to serve as the Financial Secretary for the past six years. John Knapstein will be the new FS starting on July 1. John is eminently qualified to fill this position for the council. I wish him all the best. Please support him throughout his tenure.

Knights Ladies Korner

I am very pleased to announce that Knights Ladies of Bel Air won 3rd place in Division A-Ladies Auxilary. Division A is comprised of the Councils with the largest membership and the competition is greater than in smaller Councils. I am extremely proud and a little surprised by this award. Our efforts have been noticed by the State. Well done Ladies!

The Tea was every bit as wonderful as I hoped and more. We received cards and letters from ladies thanking us for such a nice time and putting in their reservations for next year. Thank you again Roni for your strong leadership through our first Tea and also thanks to Marg Mack, LuAnne Belmonte and all of the inspired ladies and gentlemen who made this day so special.

We launched "Crosses for Confirmands" this past month and it was very successful. Pat Lijewski worked with Karen Clemens, the religious educator at St. Margaret Church, to coordinate our part in the Confirmands pilgrimage. Karen explained that there is a real need, in our Catholic community, to welcome and support the Confirmands. Several Ladies went with the Confirmands on their pilgrimage to St. Jude's Shrine. There we passed out olive wood crosses and cards telling these precious teenagers that they are in our prayer as they proceed to Adulthood in their Catholic Faith. We then attended Sunday Mass at the Basilica with these young adults. I need to tell you that with all we hear about "kids today" I was moved by the polite and respectful nature of these teens. It was a privilege and pleasure to be allowed to share this day with them. Thank you Pat Lijewski and all of the Ladies who support these teens through this program and with prayers.

Betty O'Leary tells me that Anna's House is excited about the picnic/barbecue that the Ladies are hosting for them this weekend. Fried chicken and all the fixings will be served. Men from the Knights are also tilling a small plot of soil for a vegetable garden and the residents are looking forward to growing fresh tomatoes. Thank you Betty for organizing this wonderful activity. Betty will be stepping down from Chairing Anna's House so we are looking for a new Chairperson to step forward.

A special thanks is extended to Mary Jane Z. and Ann Naused for their dedication to the Nominating Committee. Though countless hours calling all members and asking each of you to consider a position they have been able to find candidates for every position. It is essential that these positions be filled with people who value the Knights Organization and feel called to help. Elections will be during the June meeting.

The Birthday Luncheon at the Hall will be Sunday, June 3rd. Mary Jane Z. and Mary Sporney have several surprises planned and I know you will be very pleased with the day. The event will be so much more fun if you come. Please plan to attend.

The men are making big plans for the Family Picnic, July 14th at the Hall. The Ladies will be counted on to provide their favorite picnic side dishes and the men will provide grilled food and beverages. Activities are being discussed and a head count with ages is needed before they select the entertainment.

In God We Trust,

Alicia Rappold, Knights Ladies President (410) 879-0854

Club Steward Message

We all are aware of the increase in expenses. The electric bill has been as high as $1300 over the recent months and the water bill has varied from $75 to about $270 if my memory serves me correctly. If you change the thermostat setting please return it to its unoccupied setting when you leave. If you turn the ice machine on, only open the water valve about an eighth of a turn and shut it off and unplug it when your leave. When this ice machine is full of ice, it continues to use water even when not making ice.

The Way Back

(Fourth of a series of four articles)

For nearly two hundred years from its founding, America could be considered a Christian society. Although church and state were separate, the public life of the nation was conducted in conformity with Christian principles: God was welcome in the public venue; actions of political and business leaders were guided by a common sense of virtue and morality that formed the ethos of the general public; churches were free to conduct their social and charitable works according to the norms of their religion.

Then, beginning in the 1960s and continuing to the present, there has been a continual movement to treat religion as a solely private matter, to remove all reference to God from public affairs, to impose militantly secular norms on religiously-based organizations and activities. What Justice Potter Stewart, who cast the only dissenting vote when the Supreme Court ruled in 1963 that reading Bible passages or reciting the Lord's Prayer in school was unconstitutional – practices that had been common since public education was begun -- said is coming to pass: the decision would lead to the "establishment of a religion of secularism."

These changes have occurred because Christians have not resisted them. They have accepted a total separation of religious beliefs from the life of the world. Limiting devotions to Sundays, they have adopted an exclusively secular way of thinking and living the rest of the week. At best, they have tried to adapt religious principles to the changing society, while ignoring the role that Christianity can play in shaping that society. America, following the lead of Europe, is developing a culture that excludes God from public awareness, thus eroding the nation's spiritual foundations. As then-Cardinal Ratzinger has warned: "The attempt to shape human affairs to the total exclusion of God leads us more and more to the brink of the abyss, toward the utter annihilation of man."

The nation's need is for a public morality capable of counteracting the advocacy of people who consider God irrelevant. America must revitalize its Christian heritage. The road back is not a return to the past, but to the development of a doctrine of the modern world based on Christian principles and an ordering of our national life with it. It is an attempt to generate from the central teachings and insights of our Faith the spiritual energy to reroot Christian tenets into the life of the nation.

The path will not be easy. To change society is a daunting task. The difficulty of leading a Christian life in a militantly secular society is compounded by our involvement in a network of institutions and relationships from which we cannot disassociate ourselves: our businesses, schools, associates, neighbors, the media, advertisements, recreational venues – influences that in many cases are not neutral, but anti-Christian. Far-reaching changes are called for in the institutions, laws, practices and activities of existing society. It will take a stupendous effort to bring about the spiritual and moral revitalization needed to order the collective temperament of the nation in accordance with a Christian understanding of life. If it is not done, however, our Faith, as well as that of our children and their descendents, will be at risk.

As a start, a program of education and spiritual formation is needed. It can no longer be assumed that Christians, including Catholics, have an adequate knowledge of their Faith, of why they were born, and toward what end they are destined. Catholics, as well as all Christians, must develop a deeper understanding of the purpose of their existence and make that a basis for their lives. The education, beginning in the parishes and continuing through organizations such as the Knights of Columbus, must be directed toward developing a Catholic philosophy of life, based on the unchanging tenets of the Faith, to instill values that will help the individual act in a Catholic manner in the world-at large. The aim is to have the person's religious and social behavior united, so that one's religious beliefs guide one's actions in social life, business dealings, and pleasurable activities.

Catholics, and Christians generally, have operated in a reactive mode to the transformation of society. Those advocating secularism have advanced their cause a step at a time, law suit after law suit, challenge after challenge, change after change. Now it is time for Catholics to take a more proactive stance, and what organization is better suited to do this than the Knights of Columbus, acting in concert with our Bishops and Priests.

The Knights of Columbus is already playing a role in this effort with its consistent stand on pro-life issues, its support to keep the mention of God in the Pledge of Allegiance, and its growing willingness to speak out on political issues that have moral aspects that are in opposition to Catholic teaching. But, much more must be done. Imagine the effect on the nation if one million Catholic men and their families took a stand for decency – pledged not watch videos that were indecent; did not patronize businesses that supported immoral life styles; said Grace before meals when in public restaurants; wrote their Congressmen about legislation that had moral implications (good as well as bad); complained to corporate sponsors about their sexually-suggestive advertising; said the Rosary as a family each day. The shift toward secularism has been many decades in the making, and it will take an extended period to fully reverse the trend. As Knights, we can begin with prayer, continue with educating our members about the problems and what can be done, and then help develop public awareness and stimulate public action to restore religion to its proper place in American democracy. Although the task is Herculean, we are not alone – God is on our side. Remember, Vivat Jesus!
